2. I am a resident of Bronx County, New York.

3. I was hired as a delivery person in early 2004 at the Spice restaurant located at 1411 Second Avenue (the "1411 Second Avenue location").

4. I worked from 11:00 am to 11:30 pm daily—except I stayed until 12:00 or 12:30 am on Fridays and Saturdays—with Mondays off.

5. There was no formal lunch break, and if I tried to eat a meal the manager would interrupt me when a delivery had to be made.

6. Although I was hired and paid as a delivery person, I was also required to prepare food and stock the storage room in addition to making deliveries from 11:00 am to 6:00 pm. After 6:00 pm, I made deliveries full-time.

7. I also had to clean the restaurant for approximately 30 minutes at the end of each day.

8. The other delivery persons at 1411 Second Avenue—including Umberto Badillo, Martine Perez, Jose Castillo, Umberto Otilica, and Ramiro Lopez—worked the same schedule as I did and were also required to prepare food, stock the storage room, clean, and make deliveries.

9. I was paid $160 per week cash.

10. I was required to purchase a bicycle, cell phone, and uniform t-shirts (first t-shirt free) with my own money.

11. I received tips from customers, but I was never told that the tips would be counted toward my salary.

12. I was always paid with cash until approximately February 2006, when Spice began paying me by check.

13. The checks did reflect that I received tips—although I was never given an explanation for this.

14. Spice never asked me for my social security number, and the social security number shown on my paychecks was invented by Spice.

15. Around January 2006, Tom, the chef, told me that I could only work 40 hours per week at the 1411 Second Avenue location, and that I would have to go to another Spice location if I wanted additional hours.

16. On one occasion, I worked one day at the Spice Chelsea restaurant at 199 8th Avenue while working at the 1411 Second Avenue location the rest of the week.

17. I currently work only 40 hours per week at the 1411 Second Avenue location—from approximately 11:00 am to 11:30 pm Wednesdays and Thursdays, 4:00 pm to 12:30 am on Fridays, and 4:00 pm to 11:00 pm on Sundays.

18. My departure and arrival times were recorded on a punch card.

19. I never saw any minimum wage posters until approximately 2006.
